NOTE from the PASTOR

Today we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost. This feast has brought to a quick close our celebration of Easter. Pentecost is the most important feast of the liturgical calendar after Easter. It is the day the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles and the day on which the Church was founded. May we rejoice on this great day and give thanks to God for all the good He has bestowed upon us, especially in giving to us the Paraclete and the Church!

After Masses on Pentecost Sunday, we will chant the great hymn of the Church, Veni Creator. On Pentecost, like on New Year's Day, the Church gives a plenary indulgence to those who participate in any church. This comes under those usual conditions of receiving Holy Communion, Sacramental Confession within 20 days, prayers for the Holy Father's intentions, and complete detachment from all sin. So please be sure to avail yourself of this gift. Remember, an indulgence assists in making up for all those consequences of sin. We do this either in this life by our good works, penances, and indulgences or in the life to come in Purgatory. That choice is up to us, but we will not escape all the consequences of our actions and choices!

June will be a busy month between Pentecost, Corpus Christi, and celebrating the Feast of the Sacred Heart. We also have the parish picnic at the end of the month, on June 26. So please be sure to stay up to date on everything coming up. Sign up also for the picnic! This year, the Feast of St. John the Baptist gets replaced because the Sacred Heart takes precedence. St. John the Baptist, this year, is truly doing what he preached, decreasing while allowing Christ to increase. We will still do the usual celebration with the fire, but over at Sacred Heart following their parish Feast Day Mass.

Lastly, I would like to thank those who have supported me in the priesthood and in the work to found the Oratory over these past ten years. I am undoubtedly undeserving of your kindness. It is hard to fathom how quickly time has gone. Thank you to those who planned the social, for the prayers, the cards, and gifts given to me. It is all genuinely humbling. Please know that you are all in my prayers each day, that I remain committed to the work that has been begun here, and I ask each of you to continue to pray for me.

Have a blessed month ahead!

Fr. Paul Beuch

Relics of St. Bernadette
The relics of St. Bernadette, the Marian visionary of Lourdes, France, will tour the United States for the first time! On June 8 and 9, St. Bernadette will be visiting St. Bernadette Parish in Amelia, Ohio.

Visiting St. Bernadette through her relics while they are in the United States is a rare opportunity, and you are invited and to join in the experience of the peace of Lourdes and Our Lady.

“St. Bernadette continues to be a vehicle through which Mary points the way to her Son, Jesus Christ, through this relics tour. It’s an affirmation that the Lord attends to everyone and everyone has an opportunity to be healed and, in turn, to bring healing and peace to the world. And don’t we all need healing in one way or another?” - Msgr. Kenneth Schwager

First Holy Communion

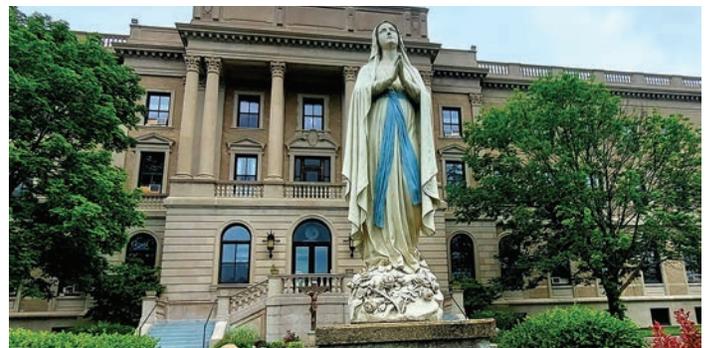

Kylie and Jonathan Robinson made their first Holy Communion on May 15 at Sacred Heart. Pippa Rumpler will make hers at Old St. Mary on June 5 at the 9:30 am Mass. Please keep these children in your prayers!

Even if you can’t take a regular hour, but can be a substitute, please contact the parish office. Please help us keep adoration at Old St. Mary alive! It would be very helpful if we had an overall coordinator for adoration, or even one for Tuesday and another for First Friday. This person or persons should be devoted to adoration, be highly organized, and able to work closely with the parish office. Please contact Fr. Jon-Paul if able and interested!

Please ensure that anything you want to place out in church has been pre-approved by Fr. Jon-Paul. Anything set out without his approval will be removed. Things placed out do not mean Fr. Jon-Paul or the other Fathers necessarily agree with material or promote it, only that there is nothing contrary to the teachings of the Church.

Pregnancy Center

Many thanks to Chuck Merk and our Seminarians who moved 36 bins of clothing — 18 bins of boys and girls winter clothing to Clay St. and 18 bins of summer boys and girls clothing to the Pregnancy Center. We could not have done it without you!

Thanks for your prayers for the 15-year-old girl for whom I asked for prayers several months ago. She is doing well and having her child this month! – Terri Huwel

Mt. 21:22 “And if you have faith, everything you ask for in prayer, you will receive.”

CONFESSIONS: Please remember that Confession times before 9:00 a.m. daily Mass at Sacred Heart and before Old St. Mary’s 12:10 Mass are often not full. Saturday mornings are usually less crowded with two priests generally hearing confessions at that time. If you are able to make it to a less busy time, please do so for those who can’t. Please always try to be concise, clear, and well prepared, especially when the confession line is long. If you need spiritual advice on any matter that requires more than a few minutes, please make a separate appointment—we’re happy to be of service. Thank you for your consideration and cooperation so that we may make the Sacrament of Penance available to as many people as possible.

If anyone would like to help support our monthly newsletter by advertising on the back cover, please contact the parish office for more information. These ads help us provide the newsletter at no cost to the parish. Please consider either placing an ad or supporting our sponsors!

The Sounds of Summer

Now that we are moving back into summer, it is important to keep in mind that when the church windows are open, voices do carry into the church. Please be mindful, when talking under the windows, especially in the courtyard, that we must be respectful of the Masses and devotions taking place inside the church.

We are going through a period of liturgical exile, explains Bishop Athanasius Schneider in this enlightening book, and the vast proliferation of modern abuses are crying out for liturgical reform. The primary source of most modern abuses, he declares, is man’s narcissistic tendency to idolize himself instead of paying homage to God.

In what is sure to be seen as one of the most impressive and authoritative books ever written on the Catholic Mass, Bishop Schneider reestablishes what Catholics have known for centuries but have largely forgotten today: that the Mass is the highest form of Christian prayer, which enables us to express with exterior worship our interior belief.

He describes how saints such as Padre Pio and John Vianney helped the faithful enter into a profound spiritual experience during Mass, and he explains why the Mass should serve as a means to lift our hearts to God so we can surrender to His will. You’ll come to understand why the rubrics are vital to preserving the authenticity of the liturgy, and you’ll learn why architecture, music, sacred art, and even incense are vital symbols that direct our attention to Heaven. You’ll also learn:

- How to recollect and listen to God’s Word properly
- The keys to lifting your heart and surrendering to God’s will at Mass
- Why it’s essential to celebrate the Mass ad orientem
- How following the rituals assists you in contemplating the spiritual
- Ways you can unite yourself to the sacrifice of Christ on the Cross
- The most profitable ways of spending time in thanksgiving following Holy Communion

Bishop Schneider and coauthor Aurelio Porfiri encourage the revival of public prayers, such as the Liturgy of the Hours and Eucharistic adoration. He explains how genuflecting, kneeling, and prostrating oneself are all outward signs of reverence that demonstrate this inward action. Our duty, he declares, is to render “perpetual thanksgiving” to God at Mass. Indeed, as he solemnly asserts, “The Mass is the greatest and most important work of the Church.”
